

Sarah Jerrom is a Canadian vocalist, composer and arranger specializing in jazz and creative music, taking her inspiration from lyric-driven melodies, genre-defying instrumentation and experimental soundscapes. Sarah's new album, a collection of original songs recorded by her contemporary jazz quartet, "Dream Logic," was released Mar. 26th 2021 on Three Pines Records. "The Yeats Project" (2017), her first all-original album, features W.B. Yeats's poetry set to music and orchestrated for a nine-piece chamber jazz ensemble, achieved critical praise and international airplay. A graduate of the University of Toronto jazz program (2005), Sarah has studied composition under renowned Canadian composers Christine Jensen, Christopher Smith, Rick Wilkins (O.C.) and Andrew Downing. Headliner performances across Ontario include Brock University's Centre for the Arts, The Music Gallery, The Richard Bradshaw Amphitheatre, the Niagara Jazz Festival and the Lakefield Jazz Festival, as well as many of Toronto's top jazz clubs and listening rooms.
